Last Thursday evening February 5 was the 41st weddleg anniversary of Judge , nd Mrs. H. M. Beverley. In the evening 't was quietly celebrated, only the memb us of the family being present. At exactly 9 o'clock they were escorted into the dini ug room by the youngest daughters, where to their surprise, an elegant supper was spread. On entering the dining room the Judge made a short speech, very appropriate for the occasion. The rest of the evening was pleasantly spont in dancing, and "all went merry as a marriage bell."

The amount of annoyance , thich the theatre goers of this city are sub lect to by boys whistling and men coming in almost any town in this circuit, cause an uprising to express protest and indignation. Many of the young scamps act more like barbarians than humans Every time an audience gathers, the small boy begins whistling and men go out between acts, never failing to return gardless of those who have a desire to hear, these heavy-weights, with lordly derous tread of modern Goliaths. There is a shuffling of feet and jerking of chairs lasting for the space of ten to fifteen minuets and then the audience is permitted to again gather an idea of what is being said on the stage. Possibly it never occurs to these disturbers is at the Gyles school house, eight miles that the other portion of the audience west of town. A REAL LUXURY!

Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands of women wearing away their lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.

If your grocer sends you anything in place of SAPOLIO, send it back and insist upon having just what you ordered. SAPOLIO always gives satisfaction. On fluors, tables, and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans, and metals it has no equal. Everything shines after it, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.

Grocers often substitute ch .per goods for SAPOLIO to make a better profit. Send back such articles and insist on having just what you ordered.

Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Diebers, in Twelve Large and Handson-Velumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a triffe more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Diebers was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has wen the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his interime. They abound in wit, humor, pathes, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each look is intensely interesting. No homestould be without a set of these great and renarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Diekens' works which we offer as a superposition works are one of which is very works which we offer as a superposition works.
